

Welcome to Basel – be our guest.

Accessibility

- Centrally located in Europe where Switzerland, France and Germany meet
- High speed train connections: from Frankfurt and Paris → 3h, Milan → 4h
- Trinational EuroAirport only 6 km from the city center – Zürich International Airport with 320 departures per day only 80 km away
- Well-developed public transport network – free of charge for all hotel and Airbnb guests

Sustainability

- 100 % of Basel's electricity is generated from renewable sources
- Green city with at least one park in each district
- Climate friendly arrival by train from many European cities

Venues

- Located in the city center and most important exhibition location in Switzerland
- Five halls with an overall exhibition area of 141,000 m²
- State-of-the-art infrastructure with 25 modular rooms
- Plenaries for up to 10,000 pax
- Largest room for up to 3,000 pax

Events

Host of international fairs and events:

- Art Basel, 100,000 visitors
- European Aids Conference, 3,000 pax
- ITI World Symposium, 5,000 pax
- DGHO Trinational conference, 5,500 pax
- DIA Annual Meeting, 2,500 pax

Prime Location for the Life Sciences

- The headquarters of Roche and Novartis, two of the five globally leading pharmaceutical companies, are located in Basel
- It's thus no surprise: DNA, LSD and Vitamin C were discovered in Basel
- Highest concentration of Life Sciences companies in Europe

Did you know?

- The Government of Basel funds congresses upon request
- The oldest university of the Swiss Confederation was founded in 1460 in Basel
- MCH Group's Art Basel, is the world's premier show for modern and contemporary art
- The Bank for International Settlements is based in Basel
- Basel is the home town of tennis legend Roger Federer
- MCH Group's hall 1 is designed by Basel architects Herzog & de Meuron

Accommodation

- 10,000 hotel rooms in the Basel metro area
- 1,000 hotel rooms within walking distance
- 4,000 Airbnb places